Hello – congratulations on your new DBE certification. The MnUCP's certification committee met and officially certified your firm as DBE, effective 1/18/2023.

Your firm will be searchable in the online MnUCP directory, here:
<https://mnucp.metc.state.mn.us/>

That is the directory search page that will let people find your profile

Should you need to show that your firm is DBE certified, your new online profile serves as evidence of your active certification (e.g. for prime consultants or government agencies). The top of the main search page says, "A firm's listing in the MNUCP DBE Directory is proof of their active certification."

Attached is a letter memorializing your new DBE certification. Please keep it for your records.

Also attached is a brief guide about doing business with the City of Minneapolis.

Please also review the City's Minneapolis Business Website, which contains information and resources for starting and growing a business.

Best,

Kailleen Perez Garcia
