

ABOUT NOSH POSH

Nosh Posh provides an online snack subscription box for consumers and businesses, fresh food vending machines, and healthy snacks sourced from BIPOC- and women-owned businesses across the world.

As an organization, we believe in pairing health and convenience—and all of our product offerings seek to provide innovative access points, making healthier snacks and prepared foods easier to access for all communities. By sourcing all products from BIPOC- and women-owned suppliers, we bridge access for diverse suppliers to reach new audiences and expand brand visibility.
