Hi Char,

Here is the certification we've received, but to be approved in New York state, where I have an active client, I need the Minnesota CERT. Unfortunately, when I submitted my application, it was deleted from the system without any notification.

I was able to be certified (see below). However, I am trying to be state-certified while addressing that my previous application was deleted. Any help or guidance is appreciated.

I'm here to help,
Meredith

Circling back on this. Were you able to connect with Mark? Did you hear back from the state?

Nope, no replies from Mark. I haven't followed up with the other contacts yet. Are you sure he's okay and working?

I'm here to help,
